Timid Try

Scream Silence

Your pretty eyes
Give the show away
You feel the want to be beloved
I wait and seeA consent nod by you
And close by me
I see your promising winged eyes
And hear a softly melodyA timid try
To fly away
Close clasped to reach the sky
Without returnA timid try
To fly away
Close clasped to reach the sky
Without returnPleasant dream
Arised in minds
Woken up by confusion
And past the nightA veiled silhouette of you
I fear, it's just a second dream
I feel force to close my minds
And hear a softly melodyA timid try
To fly away
Close clasped to reach the sky
Without returnA timid try
To fly away
Close clasped to reach the sky
Without returnA timid try
To fly away
Close clasped to reach the sky
Without returnA timid try
To fly away
Close clasped to reach the sky
Without return
