I crashed straight from heaven to your hell
And I know that you're no angel
You're broken and battered
But I fell
Cause your scars
They make me feel I'm not alone.
I'd rather be in the dark with you
Than in a lonely light.
I'm not afraid, I'm in love with you!CHORUS
Cause I need to feel you now
I need to hear your sound
I don't care that you bring me so low
Cause all that I know is you feel like home, yeah.
I need to breathe you now
I need release somehow
I'm wrapped up in your skin and your bones
And all the I know is you feel like home, yeah. You're strangely familiar and comfortable
I'm not alone.
When I'm laying in your arms I feel alive.
I never knew
That it was you
You're suck a beautiful disaster.
I'd rather be in the dark with you
Than in a lonely light.CHORUS
Cause I need to feel you now
I need to hear your sound
I don't care that you bring me so low
Cause all that I know is you feel like home, yeah.
I need to breathe you now
I need release somehow
I'm wrapped up in your skin and your bones
And all the I know is you feel like home, yeah.
Oh, yeah! Oh, yeah! I said all that I know is you feel like home, yeah. I need to feel you now.
I need to hear your sound.
Don't care that you bring me so low,
All that I know is you feel like home!CHORUS
Cause I need to feel you now
I need to hear your sound
I don't care that you bring me so low

Cause all that I know is you feel like home, yeah.
I need to breathe you now
I need release somehow
I'm wrapped up in your skin and your bones
And all the I know is you feel like home, yeah.
Oh, yeah! Oh, yeah! I said all that I know is you feel like home.. yeah.
