

Cheating Myself

School Boy Humor

We'll sing just a little bit louder
And we won't stop till she can't handle it
We'll sing just a little bit slower

So she'll hang on to every single wordOver these past few years I feel like I've been cheating myself

I'm working hard all the time

You take the easy way out

Over these past few years I've tasted who you're going to beCandy coated on top

But so bitter underneathUh oh, uh oh

He's still watching

Oh no, Oh no

She's undressing him with her eyes, wasting his time,

No No No (And I know that she'll never change)

and uh oh, uh oh

No one said it didn't hurt and

Everybody knows good things take a little work

So don't go giving up on the one, the one you loveOver these past few years we've driven right into a dead end

And we'll keep spinning our tires until one of us gives in

And we're approaching the question that I feel like we should ask

Should we just catch different rides, or just keep fixing the flats?Uh oh, uh oh

He's still watching

Oh no, Oh no

She's undressing him with her eyes, wasting his time,

No No No (And I know that she'll never change)

and uh oh, uh oh

No one said it didn't hurt and

Everybody knows good things take a little work

So don't go giving up on the one, the one you loveWe'll sing just a little bit louder

And we won't stop till she can't handle it

We'll sing just a little bit slower

So she'll hang on to every single wordSo close your eyes girl, and tell me what you see

The lives that we've created, were all because of me

So listen closely girl, cause our future is at stake

The reason we are ending: is because I give, you take

Close your eyes, and tell me what you see

A problem that's unchanging, a past that's haunting meUh oh, uh oh

He's still watching

Oh no, Oh no

She's undressing him with her eyes, wasting his time,

No No No (a past that's haunting me)

and uh oh, uh oh
No one said it didn't hurt and
Everybody knows good things take a little work
So don't go giving up on the one, The one you love
The oneeeeee, the one you love
The oneeeeee, the one you love
The oneeeeee, the one you love
