

Awake (To a Life of Misery)

Napalm Death

We aren't their hatch
We are being bred through slaveryThought trained to succeed
From here on the pain begins
We're maggots cast, sea of struggle
Bait for the big fishCrawl, forever, crawling
Faith holds no answers
Ravenous, they greedily suck away
Will to even argueBelief in something better
Downtrodden hopes still linger
Faces bear the same shallow fear
Of forgotten prosperityPowers change
The promise of reward
Declarations false and unjust
Tame insecurityA dreamlike notion, life eases by Cushioning the blow of impending reality
Aimlessness trudging, flogging us
AwakeThought trained to succeed
From here on the pain begins
We're maggots cast, sea of struggle
Bait for the big fishCrawl, forever, crawling
Faith holds no answers
Ravenous, they greedily suck away
Will to even argueBelief in something better
Downtrodden hopes still linger
Faces bear the same shallow fear
Of forgotten prosperityAwake
