I Wanna Be

Chris Brown

Look, I know we've been friends for a while now
But I just feel like I can confess to you
It's gonna be hard but
Alright, here it goes
Imagine that the pillow that you cried on was my chest
And the tissue that you wiped your face with was my hand
Girl, imagine if you needed advise about some other guy
I'm the one that comes to mind
Not tryna hear you tell nobody that I'm just a friend
Just trying to make sure I'm that body that you call your man
And anytime you need a shoulder, it shows not a day
But what I'm tryna say is
I wanna be, girl, there's no [Incomprehensible] call late at night
Said I wanna be first one at the door when you open your eyes
Wanna be the one you run to, wanna be one that ain't gon' hurt you
I wanna be him, I wanna be, yeah
Be the man makin' your girls jealous
Girl, I wanna be, be the guy that's shuttin' down all the fellows
Whatever you need, girl, it's all on me
So tell your friend or your lover, girl, I wanna be
Would it be cool? Would you mind if I called you my boo?
What if the next with you is pushin' was the one I bought for you?
Can I be the one that meets your pops and take your mama shoppin'
Be the only one they like
Have you thought about it? Wait, really thought about it?
Maybe you should take some time, call your girls and talk about it, yeah
?Cause I done already made up my mind
Don't need no more time to know if I wanna be with you
I wanna be, girl, there's no [Incomprehensible] call late at night
I wanna be first one at the door when you open your eyes
Wanna be the one you run to, wanna be one that ain't gon' hurt you
I wanna be him, I wanna be, yeah
Be the man makin' your girls jealous
I wanna be, be the guy that's shuttin' down all the fellows
Whatever you need, girl, it's all on me
So tell your friend or your lover, girl, I wanna be
Put me on your screen saver, all over your myspace
And make me one of your top favorites, that's where I wanna be
The one you?re cryin' for, stand up for and fightin' for

Wanna be your good, bad, love, hate, girl
If my heart hoped to die on everything that's good
I'ma do you right, show you right, get this understood
?Cause my heart hoped to die on everything that's good
I'ma do you right, show you right, get this understood
I wanna be, girl, there's no [Incomprehensible] call late at night
First one at the door when you open your eyes
Wanna be the one you run to, wanna be one that ain't gon' hurt you
I wanna be him, I wanna be, yeah
Be the man makin' your girls jealous
Be the guy that's shuttin' down all the fellows
Whatever you need, girl, it's all on me
So tell your friend or your lover, girl, I wanna be yours
Girl, I wanna be yours
I wanna be yours
I wanna be, I wanna be
