

Bleach

DJ Dara

In the air my troubles are away

Only if just for this one day

Everyday is an afternoon clowns

Kings and Queens and we all get crownedThe change has fly, leaving you left to tryWalking through dark, she stumbles into the light

Bleaching out the backdrop, her eyes steal the waitShe thinks the worlds so gray

It's right because it's just that way

Life's through backdrops and colossal extremes

Your reactions make me want to, want to screamThe change has fly, leaving you left to tryWalking through dark, she stumbles into the light

Bleaching out the backdrop, her eyes steal the waitYour headaches, get up, get up, goWalking through dark, she
stumbles into the light

Bleaching out the backdrop, her eyes steal the wait

You're living alone
