Shatter

Gus Black

If you want to stay home
We don't need to go away
If you want to stay high
GoodbyeShatter all the things you know
Shatter all the things you know
Though I'm addicted to the sound of your soul
I don't need to knowIf you want to live a lie
Please, please, don't try it with me
If you want to live low
Then goShatter all the things you know
Shatter all the things you know
Though I'm addicted to the sound of your soul
I don't need to knowHow you'll change
You'll changeShatter all the things you know
I won't be controlled
Though I'm addicted to the sound of your soul
I don't need to know
