Black White(Jerry Dammers Mix)

Asian Dub Foundation

J and D here united
Black and white here to show you how we've been delighted
The new generation since the mid nineties
Showing you it's done if you think you are a smartie
Telling you the truth since we spotted eachother
We'd like to big up our elder sister and brother
Because they are the legend and they are like no other
Trained by the greater legend mother and fatherNow we think jump up lyrics are alright
But we'd like to broadcast a subject we know is not right
Look at us, but don't look at us in disgust
Because you know the reality and it's time to adjust
Think to yourself, don't be foolish about it
Fix up your brain or you'll be the target
A black man and a white woman living together
Face the facts you fascist perpetratorsAnd as the world is getting smaller and smaller
We can only get closer and closer
Building this community of sound
Celebrating the unity we've found
And we know this is the model to follow
For all the dub children of tomorrow
As they grow under shifting skies
We'll se every nation in their eyesBlack and white here has united We're here to show you how we've been delighted
Black and white here has united
Building this community of sound
