

Mechanical Nature (feat. Bass Inc. Instinct)

Wes Mex

I am - you are - we're all in love with the rhythm jump and mind to reach a higher feeling

Hi
welcome to bass inc.
producing
the new human nature

welcome to bass inc.
elapsing
the time of perception

welcome to bass inc.
mechanical nature

welcome to bass inc.
the time of perception

I feel so high now that I'm on the tempo falling down like a drop in a rainy September

I can barely describe What is happening now but the sound is sending the scent of Electricity isn't it?

an artificial heart in the chest you can even manipulate

Let it beat
and open new spaces through the vibes

just don't let it slow, wear your 4-d glasses

ride the flow

I feel the hype
for ongoing lyrics
loops
and exhaling breathings

it sounds crazy
but that's what you find right here
that's why you need it

Don't
step
back
step up
try it yourself
and jump
hiiiiiiii

that's bass inc.
say hello to your new
fine
fun

it's funny
som'thing in this jungle
jingles,
spurring,
jazzing,

carrots to boost bunnies and wobbles to make 'em stunning sunny mornings here are nuclear blasts sunday morning comes too fast so we hide in this mechanical nature

jump and mind to elevate the spirit
