Winter

Stratovarius

Silence is all I hear
Blackness fills my world
Midwinter days and lonely nights
Depression takes over my frozen mindMorning starts a new day
Dawning, nowhere to be seen
Oh, won't you break
My chains and let me go?
Free as a bird in the skyWinter blows colder
I'm feeling older
Visions of darkness
Breaking the silenceWinter blows colder
I'm growing older
Light fades away
I'm here to stayI'm telling you
No one could ever take your place
Open your eyesWinter blows colder
I'm feeling older
Visions of darkness
Breaking the silenceWinter blows colder
I'm growing older
Light fades away
I'm here to stayWinter
Winter
