

Anybody

The Dirtball

INTRO

I feel the party party in my body body
My heart pounding pounding from the pills in my system (x2)

[Chorus]

Anybody wanna get down?
Anybody wanna take a ride down town?
Anybody wanna party with the party man on the party plan, eat a platter full of pills and Die!
(x2)

Who want that me?
Me don't want but I know a lotta people that are on the hunt They be caught up on the feeling caught up on the run Caught up in a land of pharmaceutical fun

Yeah,
one pill three pill five pill nine!
Feeling on top and I'm doing just fine
But i ate a lot of pills on the Fourth of July My buddy "Gabe" was involved and between you and I

He'd been off on a hot one, 20 pills deep Lotta heavy drinking before he went to sleep
He seemed okay he was always a mess
But he never woke up now he's laid to rest

But he partied with the best of them
Partied with the whole clan and the rest of them,
Laying sticks in the ground Party people watch out Get down to the sound that's what it's about Come on, uh

Chorus (anybody wanna get downâ€¦.)

Take a little trip with me
Take a ride down town while I bang the beat Talk about another friend called Vicodin who had a friend named "Steve" he was a thief

yeah, yeah

Skilled in the arts of stealing the heat Worked on a tarmac in a medical fleet Ran the dirty biz of yanking the pills, taking them home
and selling them off and stuffing his gills

Pilled out almost every single weekend Towards the end all the energy leaking We loved to party with Steve, but then he died

So I wrote this song instead of a cry,

Follow!

(Chorus)

(Intro)

To the people the people the party people that rock Get fucked up but remember the talk that we had about a minute ago, Knock knock,
who's there on the countdown? you on the clock.
Only eat 2 pills not 75

Let's party like a mother fucker keep it alive Rest in peace to the ones who tried

(Chorus)
