Rememo

Kings Of Leon

On a plane, on a plane
Off to see the city girls again
Only bringing what to carry on
So that you know I won't be longDripping beards as cold as hell
And the motherfuckers gonna go to jailHonestly I can see
The giggling virgin overlooking me
Trying to put together what to say
Although it wouldn't matter anywayDripping beards as cold as hell
And the motherfuckers gonna go to jailThis rememo is set for home
It's personal but they need to knowI'm overdue another round
To gain control and take me down
You're all tied up as you should be
And I'll be cutting out naturallyDripping beards as cold as jail
And the motherfuckers gonna go to hellThis rememo is set for home
It's personal but they need to know
