Soldier

GENTRI

Soldier

Look down and see the line, engraven in the sand.
Will you retreat and hide, or will you take a stand?
This battles lost or won by the soldier.

You felt the dragons fire, the burning from within.
You've conquered every foe, you'll do it yet again
This battles lost or won by the soldier.

Fade to black, feed the spark, fan the flame, ignite
Dig deep and find your fight, give all you've got to give this battles to the death, courage raging.
Leave it all on the field, tomorrow's made today
Ten thousand men can't break the will of a soldier.

We will decide our fate among the wounded slain.
We Choose to live or die, won't give our lives in vain.
We've chosen where we stand, were the soldiers

Fade to black, feed the spark, fan the flame, ignite
Dig deep and find your fight, give all you've got to give
this battles to the death, courage raging.
Leave it all on the field, tomorrow's made today.
Ten thousand men can't break, the will of a soldier.

Hear the call, from within.
Fight to live, love will win.
Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa , ooooooo.
