A Million Lights (Live at O2 Arena)

Cheryl Cole

I'm wondering how, we fell through
Got a little too much in my head, like I miss you
Each passing light, reminds me
Nothing could lift me from the dark, till I found youAnd everyday goes, running with the same flow
But there's always something washed awayI don't know how, we fell through
Got a little too much in my head, like I miss you
A million lights, behind you
I'm a little too much in the dark, here without youNo one leaning on me, nothing here to hold me
Moving where I choose alone
We're rolling so free, there's nothing here to stop me
Filling up my head with me and youI don't know how, we fell through
Got a little too much in my head, like I miss you
A million lights, behind you
I'm a little too much in the dark, when I can't see youNo telling where the future flows
But before it goes
You and me you know we got to try
Before the chance flies, honey this is our time
Don't be one of those sweet fools
Standing on the curb watching life pass byDon't tell me how, we fell through
Got a little too much in my head, like I miss you
A million lights, behind you
I'm a little too much in the dark, here without youA million lights, behind you
I'm a little too lost in the dark, till I find you
