

Listen

Bic Runga

Listen, this stands to reason
Sure as the season, you know, you and I can't be wrong
When you walk into the room like a song
This can't be wrong
Tender, long as the leavin'
I promise you this evening and it's moving me along
But a day away from you is too long
Much, much too long, much, much too long
And I guess I'll say it plain
We're one and the same, oh yeah
In the face of all that's changed
We'll stay the same, oh yeah

Last time, I was mistaken
My faith was shaken and my hope was never strong
But the fear inside is already gone
It's already gone, it's already gone
And I guess I'll say it plain
We're one and the same, oh yeah
In the face of all that's changed
We'll stay the same, oh yeah
And I guess I'll say it straight
We're one and the same, oh yeah
In the face of things that change
We'll stay the same, oh yeah
