

Bottom Feeder

Parkway Drive

I've heard enough
No more, no more
You've had your time in the sun
Keep your head down kid, your fifteen seconds are done
I know it hurts, I wanted it this way
All these years, I'm still the voice you can't destroy I know how this one ends
Lying in the gutter spitting teeth at the sidewalk
I know how this one ends
So bite your tongue if you can't tame it Let's get this straight, while you're listening
In my world you count for nothing Bow. You'll be the one to Drown, with the rats and the snakes
Bow. You'll be the one to drown Bottom feeder I've heard enough
I've heard enough to know
Who talks the talk, who walks the walk
And who's for fucking show
I know it hurts, I know it cuts
That I'm still standing
I'm everything you're fucking not I know how this one ends
Running from the world as your lies begin to cave
I know how this one ends
Your hollow words make shallow graves Let's get this straight, while you're listening
In my world you count for nothing Bow. You'll be the one to Drown, with the rats and the snakes
Bow. You'll be the one to Drown Bottom feeder See I feel no guilt, like I feel no pain
Like I feel the fire running through my veins
You can't draw blood when my heart beats cold
And I'll take your word like I take your name
An ego lost in the valley of self disdain
Pride cometh before the fall
And you'll break as I watch it all collapse No mercy, No peace. You can't escape this beast You can't escape now snap your neck to this No mercy
No peace
You fucking bottom feeder
