

Warriors (Feat. Royce Da 5'9'')

Papa Roach

We are the warriors
We are the warriors
We are the warriors
We are the warriors It feels like we are heading for a meltdown
I'm sweating as the seconds start to run out
I know that there's a glitch in the system
We're breaking down the walls of this prison We are the warriors
We are the warriors
We are the warriors
We are the warriors So shine your light
Push the enemy back
When you're under attack
It will protect you
Kill the night
All we need is the spark
We can bury the dark, ignite
Come on and shine your light We fought our misery in the inferno
Illuminate our lives, we are eternal
Collided in a head-on collision
We sacrifice ourself for the mission We are the warriors
We are the warriors
We are the warriors
We are the warriors So shine your light
Push the enemy back
When you're under attack
It will protect you
Kill the night
All we need is the spark
We can bury the dark, ignite
Come on and shine your light Come on and shine your light Madness come Surrounds me as I'm fallin
Bad shit happens to all of us
It's actually a fabric of garment
You know I didn't last this long in, anything less than a warrior, average
Now I'm savage
Better than that has been We are the warriors
We are the warriors
We are the warriors So shine your light

Push the enemy back
When you're under attack
It will protect you Kill the night
All we need is the spark
We can bury the dark, ignite
Come on and shine your light We are the warriors
We are the warriors
We are the warriors Come on and shine your light We are the warriors
We are the warriors
We are the warriors Come on and shine your light We are the warriors
We are the warriors
