Dr. Shavargo Pt. 3

Attack Attack!

As always it's all for you
As always it's all for you
As always it's all for you
As always
I'm all yours, just take me now
I'm all yours, just take me now
Ill rip out your heart and your eyes
Until you see the love I have inside
For you carry on this way
And I will go and learn the truth
I will go and let this down for me
And it's all for you
Take me' never let me go
Take me, I'll go and seek the truth
I cannot live without you near
I can't go on without you here
You're the reason why
Simply because you're everything
I want and more

Take my hand, I'll keep you safe
Take my hand
Take my hand, I'll keep you safe
Take my hand
The truth will set you free
Just hold my hand
I'll keep you safe, I know you're confused
But I will always refuse to take you for granted
I'll rip out your heart and your eyes
Until you see the love I have inside for you
Carry on this way till you will go
And see the truth
Come on, girl, I've been waiting
For you to make your move
Come on, girl, I've been waiting
For you to make your move
As always it's all for you
As always it's all for you
