

Waiting

Strata

Sell your story make it interesting
This part's the war scene the soundtrack a symphony
And sometime soon you'll miraculously save me
And we'll have our Hollywood-style ending
Sometimes I feel like I'm drowning
Waiting, waiting for you
Still breathing each breath for you
We cut to the next scene she smiles, says to me

I know you would never desert me
'Cos you'd kill yourself before you'd hurt me
Car crash, lights flash a laugh track we fade to black
Sometimes I feel like I'm drowning
Now, stop for a second I just realized
That if I have time to look back
Then I'm not running fast enough and I'm tired of waiting
