

Into Gold (Buzz Junkies Club Mix)

Peppermint Heaven

You're looking for an answer
You're looking for the joy
You feel the isolation
She played you like a toy
It's time to find the way out
To come in from the cold
It's time to take the sorrow
And turn it into gold
You're going round in circles
She's got you by the tail
She'll tell you you're the best when
She's hoping that you'll fail
It's time to find the way out
It's time to take a hold
It's time to take the sorrow
And spin it into gold
Can you? She's got you in the corner
She's sharpening her claws
She's relishing the moment
Exposing all your flaws
It's time to find the way out
It's time for being bold
It's time to take the sorrow
And turn it into gold
Can you? It's time to take the world on Like you know you should
It's time to take the window
And open it for good
It's time to make your heart sing
It's time for being bold
It's time to take the sorrow
And turn it into gold
It to take the ...out
Why don't you believe
You gotta make it work out
You gotta make it bleed
Cause once you take the...
You gotta take the the cold
You gotta take the sorrow
And spin it into gold
It's easy to believe in
Things that you can't see
It's easy to believe in
What you'll never be

It's time to find the way out
It's time to find a way
It's time to make it
It's time to take a window
And open it for good
It's time to make your heart sing
