She Is Leaving

Supersuckers

But I can't
And she wont
I'm not willing
And she just don't
Said I'd do,
I'd do it again
She is leaving
I'm not sure whenPromised I would and I wrote a song
She said she loved me, but she was wrong
How many times, can I lie?
How many times, will she cry?Before I learn, I gotta grow up
I'm not willing, I guess (I'm fucked/that's tough)
Whens the day, she wants to know
That I give her more than a showPromised I would and I wrote a song
She said she loved me, but she was wrong
How many times, can I lie
How many times, will she cry?She is leaving
I'm not sure when
Said I'd do,
And I'd do it again...(Solo)So this is it
This is why
I'm not running, I'm gonna lie
Down on my back, out through my mouth
I'll change my ways before I dieBut I can't
And she wont
I'm not willing
And she just don't
Said I'd do, I'd do it again
She is leaving
I'm not sure whenPromised I would and I wrote a song
She said she loved me, but she was wrong
How many times, can I lie?
How many times...Promised I would and I wrote a song
She said she loved me, but she was wrong
How many times, can I lie?
How many times...
Will she cry?But I can't
And she wont
Said I'd do

She just don't
She is leaving
I'm not sure when
