

Banner (SixSickSix Remix)

Lights

Maybe it's bricks and mortar now, whether or not they run it down
I don't want anything to shake that shape away
No one told us which way to come, nobody mapped oblivion
So I go growing roses in the disarray Just like most, falling head in
'Til my ghost fills the bed in So lift it up like a banner
Hold it up over me
If this war is never ending
I'll take this love down with me
Like a banner I don't need fate to give it time, it doesn't take pain to change your Mind
No weapon can sever the soul from me Not the sorceress, not the money
All my cleverness, all my cunning So lift It up like a banner
Hold it up over me
If this war is never ending
I'll take this love down with me
Like a banner It's around me in my surroundings
It counts me when it starts the counting
In the chaos there is a standard
I'm carrying it like a banner It's around me in my surroundings
It counts me when it starts the counting
In the chaos there is a standard
I'm carrying it like a banner So lift it up like a banner
Hold it up over me
If this war is never ending
I'll take this love down with me
Like a banner Like a banner
Hold it up over me
If this war is never ending
I'll take this love down with me
