

Superwoman

Rebecca Ferguson

I'm not wearing a cape, these are just regular clothes,
And I'm praying to God, 'come listen this load.
Smiling through the bad times, but it's all just for show
Saving my tears for when I'm alone. And I loose my shit every now and then
I break down big then I start again
And I never said I was superwoman.
Never said... I never said it.
Never ever said I was more than coping
Never did, I never did. Maybe I'm mad, maybe I'm all cried out
Maybe I'm scared, but I'm comming 'round.
No I never never said I was superwoman. Droping the mask, uncovering my soul,
Loving my scars, letting go of control.
Seeing beauty through the ashes everywhere I go
One minute I'm strong the next I dont know. And I loose my shit every now and then
I break down big then I start again
And I never said I was superwoman,
I never said... I never said it.
Never ever said I was more than coping
I never did, I never did. Maybe I'm mad, maybe I'm all cried out
Maybe I'm scared, but I'm comming 'round.
No I never never said I was more than human. And I wish I could fly
Ttake me away
Take me away
Just fly
Up and escape sometimes
I wish I was strong
Stronger than this aching
It's breaking me down. And I never ever said I was superwoman
I never said, I never said it.
never ever said I was more than coping
I never did, I never did. And maybe I'm bad, I'm all cried out
And maybe I get scared
But I'll be comming 'round
And 'round
And 'round
And 'round
And 'round
And 'round
And 'round

And 'round
All cried out
And no I never ever said oh ohh
No no I never never said I was superwomanI'm not superwoman
