Cry Baby Cry

The Cox Family

You thought you'd found someone
Who could take your cheap romance
Just another name to write down on your wallYou don't know how much you hurt me
When you walked right out the door
But this time, my tears won't be those that fallCry, baby cry, this time I'm leavin'
Here's my so-long, no time for grievin'
My mind's made up to let you go
I can't love the way you do
Cry, baby cry, this time I'm leavin' youThose dreams of you are over, my heart can't take no more
Your twisted ways of lovin'just ain't fair
You'll find out all by your lonesome
How the true love game is played
While your heart drowns in teardrops of despairCry, baby cry, this time I'm leavin'
Here's my so-long, no time for grievin'
My mind's made up to let you go
I can't love the way you do
Cry, baby cry, this time I'm leavin' youCry, baby cry, this time I'm leavin' you
