

I Won't Take Less Than Your Love

Tanya Tucker

"How much do I owe you?", said the husband to his wife
"For standing beside me through the hard years of my life
Shall I bring you diamonds, shall I buy you furs?
Say the word and it's yours" And his wife said, "I won't take less than your love, sweet love
No, I won't take less than your love
All the riches of the world could never be enough
And I won't take less than your love""How much do I owe you?", to the mother said the son
"For all that you have taught me in the days when I was young
Shall I bring expensive blankets to cast upon your bed?
And a pillow for to rest your weary head" And the mother said, "I won't take less than your love, sweet love
No, I won't take less than your love
All the comforts of the world could never be enough
And I won't take less than your love""How much do I owe you?", said the man to his Lord
"For giving me this day and every day that's gone before
Shall I build a temple, shall I make a sacrifice?
Tell me Lord and I will pay the price" And the Lord said, "I won't take less than your love, sweet love
No, I won't take less than your love
All the treasures of the world could never be enough
And I won't take less than your love" I won't take less than your love, sweet love
No, I won't take less than your love
All the treasures of the world could never be enough
And I won't take less than your love
No, I won't take less than your love
