

Chances (Happy Song for Mom)

Auryn

Hey lady
I want to thank you for being so honest
And genuine when we speak about feelings
Now maybe
(Now maybe)
We have more than we figured
We've got more innocent thoughts that trigger romance
I'll take my chances Here under these stars I feel waves crash
Here inside my car Erica is unmasked Hey baby, I want to thank you for seeing (I want to thank you)
What is honest and genuine in our mutual feelings
Now maybe
(Now maybe)
It's no more than we figured
(No, it's no more than we)
Isn't it hearts that trigger romance?
I'll take my chances Here under these stars I feel waves crash
Here inside my car Erica is unmasked
Here under these stars I feel waves crash
Here inside my car Erica is unmasked
Here under these stars I feel waves crash
Here inside my car Erica is unmasked
