

Lament

Jamie Woon

And I didn't want to want a lot
Collecting understanding
The taming of the animal
And the taking of the land
A candle burning on and on
A correction of the eyes
Paint that sound a lighter brown
With all the life in you
Red is red you can't deny
The golden's in the blues
I tried to make a colour up
To come on fire for you
We could never stand the dulling of a feeling
Facing up to forever don't you know
Pray that song returns tonight
Call it into pass
Fathers ungrown cry tonight
Turn shadows into mass
Shattered stones are fallen on the ground
Let em where they lie
