Violet

Comoros

Ba-da ba ba-da
Ba-da ba daaa
Ba-da ba ba-da
Ba-da ba daaaI watch you comb your hair in different light
You change the chair and seem to think that's alright
I understand, you need a change
So when you make that change
Don't look to see I'm alrightNow that I look at you in different light
A violet unicorn to me that's alrightI understand, you need a change
And when you make that change there
The world will elevate you
And if I told you then that I could cry
Would you take my tears and wash the sunrise?A man afraid has no shame
So when you take those tears
Don't look to see I'm alright
When you take those tears
Don't look to see I'm alrightWell how can I tell you?
How can I explain?
I want your love and I need a change in me
Ba-da ba ba-da
Ba-da ba daaaSuddenly you and I will wait
We'll finally change
You and I will wait
And maybe time will tell
Ohh yeahWe'll finally change
With a lesson
With a lesson, oh
Loving child there's Always someone new
Always someone
