

Supernova

Liz Phair

I have looked all over the place
But you have got my favorite face
Your eyelashes sparkle like gilded grass
And your lips are sweet and slippery like a cherub's bare wet ass 'Cause you're a human supernova
A solar superman
You're an angel with wings afire
A flying, giant friction blast You walk in clouds of glitter and the sun reflects your eyes
And every time the wind blows, I can smell you in the sky
Your kisses are as wicked as an F-16
And you fuck like a volcano and you're everything to me 'Cause you're a human supernova
A solar superman
You're an angel with wings afire
A flying, giant friction blast, you're a giant, flying friction blast 'Cause you're a human supernova
A solar superman
You're an angel with wings afire
A flying, giant friction blast
