

You Don't Know How It Feels

Steve Azar

I've been standin' here in the rain for hours
Lookin' for my sunshine in these cold Seattle showers
But you always have a good excuse
A little bit of lie, a little bit of truth
But when I dry my eyes all I see
Is you with him and not with me
You can try to pretend, it's no big deal
But don't try to tell me how it feels
'Cause baby, you don't know how it feels To be loved, to be left here all alone
Goin' crazy by the telephone
In between paradise and out in the cold
Wonderin' if you'll ever let him go
I'm a fool in love whose heart won't heal
So don't try to tell me how it feels
'Cause baby, you don't know how it feels You're finally here and I've got you all night long
Laughin' and talkin' and kissin'
Like nothin' was ever wrong
You say someday it'll just be me and you
And trust is all we need to see us through
When tomorrow mornin' comes again
You're walkin' out and the doubt starts creepin' in
Is it make-believe or is it real
Don't try to tell me how it feels
'Cause baby, you don't know how it feels To be loved, to be left here all alone
Goin' crazy by the telephone
In between paradise and out in the cold
Wonderin' if you'll ever let him go
I'm a fool in love whose heart won't heal
So don't try to tell me how it feels
'Cause baby, you don't know how it feels When I dry my eyes all I see
Is you with him and not with me
It cuts so deep, it almost kills
So don't try to tell me how it feels
'Cause baby, you don't know how it feels To be loved, to be left here all alone
Goin' crazy by the telephone
In between paradise and out in the cold
Tell me will you ever let him go
I'm a fool in love whose heart won't heal
So don't try to tell me how it feels

You can't tell how it feels
'Cause baby, you don't know how it feels Baby, you don't know how it feels
