

Look How Far You've Come

The King's Heralds

So you've lost your will to live, seems you're down to your last friend and the weight of the world keeps trying to pull you in.

Don't give up don't give in give it all to him cause he cares so much more than you know.

When it seems who you really want to be is someone you'll never become just look how far you've come.

Though you fail at plans you've played don't forget the steps you've made, he has brought you this far he can take you the rest of the way.

Don't give up don't give in give it all to him cause he cares so much more than you know.

When it seems who you really want to be is someone you'll never become just look how far you've come.

I know its not always an easy but don't you throw it all away no.

You've come too far to turn back now, you're headed home you're not alone.

Don't give up don't give in give it all to him cause he cares so much more than you know.

When it seems who you really want to be is someone you'll never become just look how far you've come.

Don't give up don't give in give it all to him cause he cares so much more than you know.

When it seems who you really want to be is someone you'll never become just look how far you've come.

Just look how far you've come.
