Midnight in Her Eyes

The Black Keys

Midnight is in her eyes
Tear drops like a child
You never thought about goin' wrong
Now you wonder where your man has gone
Midnight is in her eyesLately you're feeling low
Heartache on the floor
Your manic ways have got the best of you
But your heart is gonna see you through
Lately you're feeling lowI see her everywhere
Long amber hair
Calling out my name
I'm calling just the sameMidnight is in her eyes
Tear drops like a child
You never thought about goin' wrong
Now you wonder where your man has gone
Midnight is in her eyesIs in her eyes
Is in her eyes
Is in her eyes
