The Hands I Hold

Bo Bruce

(verse 1)
There's a smoking gun where the sirens end
Hear the battle drums, see the tribes descend
We can stand apart, we can stand together
Can they leave your heart, and take me forever?(chorus)
While the shrapnel falls, I hear your call
You cry out for me
And I will come, I will run
To be by your side
If the silence wins, I will guide you in
I will be your voice
They can take my soul, be the hands I hold
I will sacrifice(verse 2)
And I watched you rise in the dawn of tears
And I saw you fight my darkest fears
We can win this war if we rage forever
I will guard your door, I will stay forever(chorus)
While the shrapnel falls, I hear your call
You cry out for me
And I will come, I will run
To be by your side
If the silence wins, I will guide you in
I will be your voice
They can take my soul, be the hands I hold
I will sacrifice(bridge)
There's a war outside, one in here too
Well we're done fighting, we only want the truth
There's a war in here, well we'll find peace
Well we're done fighting, we only want relief(chorus)
While the shrapnel falls, I hear your call
You cry out for me
And I will come, I will run
To be by your side
If the silence wins, I will guide you in
I will be your voice
They can take my soul, be the hands I hold
I will sacrificeWhile the shrapnel falls, I hear your call
You cry out for me
And I will come, I will run

To be by your side
If the silence wins, I will guide you in
I will be your voice
They can take my soul, be the hands I hold
I will sacrifice

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/