

An Opening

Charlie Cunningham

More than a lie
More than I
If not here another time, then you lie Poist in the star
Is a bed of your heart
I'm not here to pick a fight but we can if you like Common they said
Common you might Someone else for a while
And from there I tell you just turn right
Turn the water to wine Common they said
Common you might
Be yourself by the fire The words down her eyes
Starts down her eyes
Play sisom mine To see the whole thing is an opening
A glimpse in to the world you wouldn't find
And you don't think it's happening
To see the whole thing is an opening
A glimpse in to the world you try to hide
And you don't think it's happening To see the whole thing is an opening
A glimpse in to the world you wouldn't find
And you don't think it's happening
