Body Snatchers 4 Ever

Leathermouth

A second chance, take a life, another mission
To steal a kiss from borrowed lips, to taste your prison.
It feels like a lifetime
Of leaving bodies on the sidelines.
I swear to God, girl, you're never gonna regret this.
Close your eyes, this will only take a second.
Though these veins are borrowed,
This heart only beats for you.

One! Two! Three! Four!
They're shells disposable, oh so expendable.
Shut it! Shut it! Shut it! Shut it out!
Of your pretty mind. They never cared for you.

Here's our shot to incite a revolution!
They don't deserve to live, we are evolution!
These veins are borrowed, this shell is borrowed.
A new life after death, it's fucking perfect!
Don't you fear--they'll never hurt us, darling!
These veins are borrowed, this love is real.

One! Two! Three! Four!
They're shells disposable, oh so expendable.
Shut it! Shut it! Shut it! Shut it out!
They never cared for you, how could you shed a tear?

Don't worry, old girl--dry the tears from your eyes.
Something better is bound to come along sometime.
Let's go.

This face means nothing! These hands feel nothing!
These lungs are empty, and these eyes are blind.
This face means nothing! These hands feel nothing!
But I'm here, and this heart is yours.

This face means nothing! These hands feel nothing!
These lungs are empty, and these eyes are blind.
This face means nothing! These hands feel nothing!
But I'm here, and this heart is yours.

Our love never dies.
