Forever More

Amorphis

I walk down to the seashore to bury my hate
I wait till the morning of the mourning but it's too late
Down to the seashore through the illuminous gate
You wait for tomorrow but today is today
No one can understand my painFind me the ocean where waters stand still
Nothing can befall evermore
Find me the ocean which swallows all that floats
It's time to prevail your conspiracyIt's a whisper of a dead man I've heard it before
It's yearning my emotions before I was born
It was only delusion of illuminous gate
Left only confusion 'cause today is the day, today is the dayFind me the ocean where waters stand still
Nothing can befall evermore
Find me the ocean which swallows all that floats
It's time to prevail your conspiracy
