To the Hills

Laurel

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Into the hills cry the tears
Of the crocodiles lost feet on the road
Said I love you so I don't have to be aloneSmoke fast, out the door
Love hard, but in the end we'll kill them all
Sun's coming up too early my valentineInto the hills, we go
I don't know if I could live much more
Didn't know that I could feel this great
Life's to waste, higher higher get, higher higher
In the sunlit dawn, if we lucky maybe God might call
Smoky heaven feeling on my own
Lost control, get higher higher get, higher higherOut on the beach, in the wreck
Horror baby blonde I swear
There's nothing left, but the lipstick on my lips
Hold out you arms, soak it in
Just some teenage kids before, you and I
Know that life could never endInto the hills, we go
I don't know if I could live much more
Didn't know that I could feel this great
Life's to waste, higher higher get, higher higher
In the sunlit dawn, if we're lucky maybe God might call
Smoky heaven feeling on my own
Lost control, get higher higher, get, higher higherOn my own, On my ownI feel it here on my skin like demons
Cry with joy cause I know hell follows me
Out here in the garden of angels
I felt what is was like to be freeInto the hills, we go
I don't know if I could live much more
Didn't know that I could feel this great
Life's to waste, higher higher, get, higher Higher
In the sunlit dawn, if we lucky maybe God might call
Smoky heaven feeling on my own,
Lost control, get higher higher get, higher higherInto the hills, we go
I don't know if I could live much more

Didn't know that I could feel this great
Life's to waste, higher higher, get, higher higher
