Noah

Eastern Conference Champions

Kick off your shoes, throw away your blues
You paid your dues, Noah
Summer is here, why interfere
Go drink a beer, Noah
You must realize that you need something
Resynthesize your own ego
You must recognise that life's just a circle
So let's go on with the show
Hoist up your sail, go kill a whale

Don't look so pale, Noah one two three four
Now let's go on with the show
Kennan was right, you're black and white
You're left and right, Noah
Remember old Cain, it's all in vein
It's starting to rain, Noah
