

Right Now Anywhere

The Black Moods

Oh, so here you come this time
Come creepin' in the night
I hear you call my name
It happened once before
We woke up on the floor
So what are you waiting for Oh, I gotta let you know
That no one's in control
I would take you right now anywhere
You, you're easily amused
Hey that ain't nothing new
I would take you right now anywhere
So here we are alone
You threw away your phone
I see you're into this
And this is how it ends
Just like it begins
It's happening again Oh, I gotta let you know
That no one's in control
I would take you right now anywhere
You, you're easily amused
Hey that ain't nothing new
I would take you right now anywhere
(right now anywhere) Oh, I see you on the street
I see you in my sleep
You are always on my mind
I like the way you speak
I wanna hear you scream
I need you to come with me all right
Oh, I gotta let you know
That no one's in control
I would take you right now anywhere
You, You're easily amused
Hey that ain't nothing new
I would take you right now anywhere I gotta let you know
You're not in control
I would take you right now anywhere
And you, you're easily amused
Hey that ain't nothing new

(right now anywhere, right now anywhere)
