Dark Secret

Nocturnal Rites

The sun fades away as a distant flame against the sky Beyond the clouds lies the undiscovered truth A realm still not known to man and the powers it possesses Now the time is soon at hand so bewareDestined to doom by a force of the unknown the answer still not far away
You all may wonder what lies beyondPassing away through the eye of the storm Sealed up inside so untouched, so secured
In The eye of the strm lies the seceret alone In dark deep inside, a power so strongThe sky starts dividing, and sends its wrath down to earth The fallen ones emerge out of the mist With powers never seen before, and the secret it withholds Another victim of the secret had come forthDestined to doom by...Through the eye of the storm ...
