Easy Come, Easy Go

The Decemberists

[Verse:]
Lumber Jack had landed on his back
Was badly on the medic when the riggy went slack
Was a moonless night, the stars were leaning right
Was leering in the mirror when the road went right

[Chorus:]
You never really gonna know
When the whistle's gonna blow
You never really gonna know
Easy come and easy go

[Verse 2:]
He was a sap old gent but no-one knew his?
And all the lil bones that he hid in his vent
She was the come-on queen, two along the scene
You found her in the shower, she'd been gone for seven weeks

[Chorus:]
You never really gonna know
When the whistle's gonna blow
You never really gonna know
Easy come and easy go

[Instrumental]

[Chorus:]
You never really gonna know
When the whistle's gonna blow
You never really gonna know
Easy come and easy go

Lyrics submitted by Samantha.

Lyrics provided by