

She Could Care Less

Joe Nichols

I'm the luckiest man in this old world
Cause I got the love of a sweet little girl
Yeah I'm as amazed as I can be
I swear I don't see what she sees in me
Well she could care less but she don't
Well she could say goodbye but she won't
Why she loves me I'll never know
She could care less but she don't
Well all I own is some rock bottom land
She oughta have diamonds on both of her hands
Well now I don't why she hasn't left
Wouldn't blame her if she traded me for someone else
Well she could care less but she don't
Well she could say goodbye but she won't
Why she loves me I'll never know
She could care less but she don't
Well she could care less but she don't
Well she could say goodbye but she won't
Why she loves me I'll never know
She could care less but she don't
Why she loves me I'll never know
She could care less but she don't

Songwriters

LAWSON/ /Published by

Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>