I Am Alive

Test Your Reflex

What is true in life, we're shadows in disguise
Making our way through time
Everyday and night
And I wanna know how long
It takes until we find
What it is we need
To make us feel like;All we do is not a lie,
And in the end we'll be alright
But for now I swear I'll try
I really should be happy
Cause I am alive tonight
Cause I am alive tonightI've tried my best to lead, an honest life for me
But it split at the seams
Cause every time I close my eyes, and reach inside
The truth I need I cannot find
But as for now I swear I'll try
I really should be happyCause I am alive tonight
Cause I am alive tonight
Cause I am alive tonight
Cause I am alive tonightAnd I can't lie
I can't lie... no
AlrightI said I am alive tonight
Cause I am alive tonight
Cause I am alive, alive, alive
Cause I am alive, alive, aliveI can't lie
I can't lie... no
I can't lie
