

Never Giving Up

Colicchie

[Hook]

I can feel your heart
Hanging in the air
I'm counting every step
As you climb the stairs
It's buried in your bones
I see it in your closed eyes turning in
This is harder than we know
We hold it in the most when we're wearing thin

[Verse 1]

Hey, yo
I've fallen more times than I would like to admit
I always bounce back stronger
Never been the type to quit
Under your breath you mumble
How you just wanna see me fail
My pain is the reason that I will Win and prevail
Listen
I tell it all cause I got nothing to hide
Should I live right or live wrong
I can't fucking decide
My life's changing right in front of my eyes
It's funny just a few years ago
I wanted to die
So why the fuck was I crying over her?
I swear to God that I won't
Ever ever learn
I never judge cause everybody gets a turn
My entire life I just wanted
To be heard
Broken promises I make
I'm trying to make an impact with
The songs that I create
I'm finally the man
That I never knew how to be
My main goal in life

Is to make my daughter proud of me

[Hook]

I can feel your heart
Hanging in the air
I'm counting every step
As you climb the stairs
It's buried in your bones
I see it in your closed eyes turning in

[Verse 2]

It's hard to accept that you were never over your ex
Addicted to the sex
Went from long time friends, to lovers, and then to strangers
Anytime we reconnect
The only thing it brings is danger
So why lie?
No we're not the perfect match
I'm getting more angry as you verbally attack
And I know you don't care
So now I'm ready to detach
Cause I know what it's like to Love someone
And they don't Love you back
I understand that Love is a gift and a curse
In the beginning it is beautiful
But then it starts to hurt
And all this pain, I take it for what it's worth
Cause no matter what I'm dealing with
Somebody got it worse
Now tell me where you were!
What's his name?
Tell me who!
I swear to God I'll break everything in this room
Matter of fact
Leave
I wanna be alone
And there's no need to put me down
I'd rather do that in my own

[Hook]

I can feel your heart

Hanging in the air
I see it in your closed eyes turning in

[Verse 3]

I've done things
Things I thought I never could
I've gotten over girls
Ones I thought I never would
My life lately it's crazy it's something new
After all this time
My dreams are finally coming true
Now I'm loving everyday to the fullest with every breath
My faith keeps growing
The reason I'm never stressed
But I'll still hide behind a fake smile and say I'm fine
As I'm constantly fighting a losing battle
In my mind
My thoughts are troubled
Now silence every rebuttal
I spent years figuring out
The meaning behind my struggle
Elevated motivation not a single dollar sign
The sorrows that I rhyme
Is the blessings from borrowed time
I remember when suicide was an option
Used to picture myself dead
Laying in a coffin
I'm screaming in despair
Many days I've had enough
But still no matter what I'm dealing with
I'm never giving up

[Hook]

I can feel your heart
Hanging in the air
I see it in your closed eyes turning in

This is harder than we know
