A Man Exits

Hopesfall

I escaped the horizon
Feelin' nothin' was the easiest existenceNo flame ever burned as bright, leave a martyr
(I will not)No more eyes to frame my falls
I can't live life for closed hearts, for closed heartsJoy left me that day, pulled from my hands
Joy left me that day, pulled from my handsAs they robbed me of life, pulled from my hands
As they robbed me of life, pulled from my handsI am leavin' Earth, [Incomprehensible] the past as I turn
Burnin' the past as I turn, wave goodbye, I am finally alive
