Just a Little Bit

Immature

It seems you've been kinda down lately
Come here let me talk to you baby
I know it's been driving you crazy
Why did he break your heart?
He's gone but your heart is still aching
If it's too soon I really don't mind waiting
Tell me what you think about making?
Making a brand new startBaby, don't you cry
I'll be right by your side
And I won't say goodbye
Not like the other guys
Heartache is in the past
You saved the best for last
Your love is all I ask
But if I'm moving too fast, girlGimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
Gimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
Gimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
I want all your loving
I must admit
But we can start with just a little bit, babeJust wanna let you know that I wanna give you all of my loving
I know it might be kind of sudden
Don't think I'm rushin' you
My love for you baby is strong
I haven't felt this way for so long
With me girl you won't go wrong
Because my love is trueBaby, don't you cry
I'll be right by your side
And I won't say goodbye
Not like the other guys
Heartache is in the past
You saved the best for last
Your love is all I ask
But if I'm moving too fastGimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
Gimme just a little bit, babe

Just a little bit of your loving
Gimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
I want all your loving
I must admit
But we can start with just a little bit, babeBaby, don't you cry
I'll be right by your side
And I won't say goodbye
Not like the other guys
Heartache is in the past
You saved the best for last
Your love is all I ask
But if I'm moving too fastGimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
Gimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
Gimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
I want all your loving
I must admit
But we can start with just a little bit, babeGimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
Gimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
Gimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
I want all your loving
I must admit
But we can start with just a little bit, babeGimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
Gimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
Gimme just a little bit, babe
Just a little bit of your loving
I want all your loving
