That Girl

Chester See

Oh tonight I'm feeling fine
I'm alone just wasting time
No Friday movie nights, or romantic candlelight
I'm just having conversations
With the thoughts in my head
All I hear are angels crying
Oh won't they just sing instead
It would be wrong for me to sayChorus
I don't need that girl by my side
I don't need that girl in my life
I don't want to talk it out
Or hold her when she cries
I don't want to say she's my kind
I don't want to say that she's mine
I don't want to tell her that I love her more than life
More than lifeI love her more than lifeHonestly, this won't do
How is she doing?
I tell myself that I'm feeling swell
But I know I'm such a fool
I can take it as a new beginning
But you know I don't feel that way
Who will take all this pain away?
I know it's wrong for me to sayChorus
I don't need that girl by my side
I don't need that girl in my life
I don't want to talk it out
Or hold her when she cries
I don't want to say she's my kind
I don't want to say that she's mine
I don't want to tell her that I love her more than life
More than lifeI love her more than lifeTalk about a sin
Was the day I walked
Into the other side
I would run back in
I wouldn't waste no time
I know it's wrong for me to sayChorus
I don't need that girl by my side
I don't need that girl in my life
I don't want to talk it out

Or hold her when she cries
I don't want to say she's my kind
I don't want to say that she's mine
I don't want to tell her that I love her more than life
More than lifeI love her more than life
