I'll Be By Your Side

Sally Shapiro

You were so sad, you were so blue
No need to tell, 'cause I know all of the story
Baby, my love is all so true
The morning comes, there is no need to worryI'm with you all the time'Cause you know that
When you feel so lonely in your heart
I'll be by your side, tonight
I'll be by your side
When the world is falling all apart
I'll be by your side, tonight
I'll be by your sideThe darkness will end, the dawn will shine
You are my love, I'm by your side tonight
Baby, you know we will be fine
Just don't let go, you have to hold on tightI'm with you all the time'Cause you know that
When you feel so lonely in your heart
I'll be by your side, tonight
I'll be by your side
When the world is falling all apart
I'll be by your side, tonight
I'll be by your side
