

My Last Page

Kolohe Kai

Life, is moving too quick for me.
Why, do you keep picking up speed?
Life, is moving too fast for me.
Why, are you running away from me? Why don't you slow down? x2 Don't forget about me,
And don't you leave without me for a day.
Cause I am, on my way. I, feel like I'm on a train,
And I'm passing by, moving past everything. Why can't someone stop this pain?
Cause I, I wanna ride this again. Why don't you slow down? x2 Life has only started,
But how I've been out smarted,
By old age, old age. Cause I'm on my last page.
Yeah, my last page.
Yeah, life goes by so fast.
Somebody please press pause, cause I want this to last. I got a really good cause,
I just wanna see my keiki,
Rise to see their dreams, to rise to see their goals,
At the tips of their toes. Grandma loves me so.
Grandma loves you so. Life, is moving too quick for me.
But why, do you keep picking up speed? Why don't you slow down?
