Watch Me Now

Ultramagnetic MC's

Watch me now
Watch me
Watch me now
Yo Kool Keith, why everybody gotta watch you?Well I'm the ultimate, the rhyme imperial
I'm better, but some don't believe me though
But I'm a pro in hot material
On your Walkman, box or any stereoUno, dos not quarto
Spanish girls, they like to call me Pancho
On the mic, innovating this pat-ter-en
You fell off, your brain is on Sa-tur-enTake steps, and climb my ladder
And climb, climb, climb
Pace the rhythm, and clock the time
That I leave, come back on beatDifferent, telling and selling
Like a Skyjet, plane propelling
But dwelling, deep in your skull
My rhyme shines, and yours is dullLike dirt, it hurt to be whacker
But instead, I'll grab a big stack of whack
MC's, lay em down like tile
Scrap and garbage, germs I'll pile to keep cleanI'm a movie scene
Ears turn, and needles lean
To cut scratches, in a part that matches
I'm leavin' eyes, and brains with patchesStuck, so push my luck
For any roach, or MC duck
Just watch meWatch me now
Word up, watch me now, suckers!
Watch me now
Yo Ced Gee, why everybody gotta watch you?I'm livin' large, my record's on the radio
Everyday, you hear me, your stereo
Rappin' hard, with lots of volume
You hear static, well use your fine tuneKnob, to tune me in better
'Cause I'm Ced Gee, and I would never
Let a whack MC G off with style
Touch my mic, rip and smileLike a duck, you know you are a soft punk
Livin' pink, your material sucks
Liver and worse than you can imagine
You best run, 'cause I'ma put a badge in your brainSo you can see the real time
Grab a pen, and write down my rhyme
And learn it and learn it and learn it, until it sinks
Inside your skull and you're no longer pink but red'Cause now you are a biter

Learnin' from me, so I guess that is Oreida
Except if you try to be the original
Rhyme imperial, the exceptional GeeSometimes I rhyme offbeat, awkward
But different with the rhythm
Back and forth one two and then I give 'em
A chance to see the world's greatest MC just watch meWatch me now
Word up, you gotta watch me now
Watch me now
Moe Love, you needs to grooveI'm continuing! Back and forth your brain spins
Facing North and south and West, not East at a angle
But mines dangle, where's your Kangol?
It seems weird, your head is triangleLike a mango, somethin' I snack on
A soft duck, somethin' I smack on
Everyday, when I come outside
You step back, stay inside your houseWhile you look out your window
Your girl screams, "Where Kool Keith go?"
Walkin', while punks keep talkin'
Annoyin' me, MC's hawkin'On the stage, any time
I'm cold chillin', I'm wearin' the rhymes
To keep warm, with the beat that's playin'
You hear me now, you know what I'm sayin'To you, you and you
Your whole organization and crew
Just watch, as I enter your mind
Decorate, and paint my signI'm hazardous, so scatter this around
I'm Kool Keith, knockin' MC's down
Just watch me, and himRhythm with madness, I had to have this chance
To rock again so you can hear this
Over and over and over, until I'm finished
Hey but I'm not, so here's the rhythmA rap beat, step beat keep feet happy
As we gradually slowly we'll teach all how to rap
I will attract all the def girls
Smack the ugly ones backAnd sit, as I chill, I'm drinkin' Moet
Expensive champagne cause Ced Gee is a poet
Rappin' and teachin', reachin' levels higher
Don't wanna be king, so don't call me sireBut instead, a scientist, with the breakthrough
My rap is funky, it can relate to you
Him, her, your little brother
His older sister, your baby's motherCousins, aunts, your whole family
In other words, Ced Gee, I'm absolutely
The best producer, at makin' rap music
I know how to use it, so just watch meWatch me now
Yo, this is TR Love, tellin' y'all to watch this
Watch me now
Germs! And we out
